Instructors: Stephanie Callahan is an Administrative Law Judge in the Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Bureau where she hears and decides cases related to unemployment insurance benefits. She previously worked as a Civil Rights Specialist with the Iowa Civil Rights Commission where she screened and investigated complaints of discrimination. Stephanie earned her J.D. degree from Drake University Law School and is licensed to practice law in Iowa.

To register for:
Class # 70124

visit www.nicc.edu/solutions or call 563.557.8271 ext. 380
Pre-registration is required.

Refund Policy: If a class is cancelled by NICC, a full refund will be issued. No refund will be given if the participant cancels five business days or less prior to class start date. Note that some fees are not refundable.

It's hard to be over-prepared for hearings. Join officials from the Iowa division to learn what to expect before and during a hearing with an administrative law judge (ALJ), including prehearing processes, the hearing notice, and appeals before the Employment Appeal Board and beyond. They will offer tips, define stages of the hearing process, and share resources to find information relevant to the specific employer's involvement in the UI claim process. Do not miss this opportunity to prepare for and defend against a claim filed against your organization. The speaker will also provide updates in policies and procedures from the U.S. Department of Labor.
